WOW! Did you assemble this yourself? This is great information and I was going to go looking for it. And if it wasn't, I was going to start myself with what few games I have.

A year ago, I was planning on ordering bulk CR2032s because the Pokemon games took them and I figured all GB games would take them. It's a good thing I didn't.

If you did do this yourself, did you just open up all the GB/C carts and look at the batteries? I can't really think of any other way it'd be possible, hmm

Now buying loose GB/C games! Feel free to send a PM :)

Nice list man! I'm in the process of replacing the batteries in all my Pokemon games. If I can't make a CR2032 fit in there, I'll go with 1616.

WOW! Did you assemble this yourself? This is great information and I was going to go looking for it. And if it wasn't, I was going to start myself with what few games I have.

A year ago, I was planning on ordering bulk CR2032s because the Pokemon games took them and I figured all GB games would take them. It's a good thing I didn't.

If you did do this yourself, did you just open up all the GB/C carts and look at the batteries? I can't really think of any other way it'd be possible, hmm

Mr. Nintendo assembled the list I simply provided the tools for the project. Yes he did have to open every single game one by one.

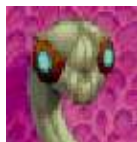

Always buying copies of Crystal Mine. Carts, manuals, boxes, CIB and sealed I want them all.

Great job! Excellent work to both you and Mr. Nintendo!

I wish Tetris had a battery; I was hoping it was since there were high score tables but they were lost after I turned it off..and I have a few extra carts I could've practiced on.

Thank you both for putting this list together, it'll be very helpful to me.

Now buying loose GB/C games! Feel free to send a PM :)

PowerPuff Girls Bad Mojo Jojo is missing from your list. All three of the PPG games had two versions, one with battery backed SRAM and one without.

Here's a list to get you started on GBA games.

Confirmed:

Breath of Fire
Breath of Fire 2
Castlevania Circle of the Moon
Dragon Ball Z The Collectible Card Game
Dungeons and Dragons Eye of the Beholder
Hamtaro Ham-Ham Heartbreak
Kirby Nightmare in Dreamland
Megaman Battle Network
MegaMan Battle Network 2
Metroid Fusion
Pinabee Wings of Adventure
Yu-Gi-Oh! The Eternal Duelist Soul

Unconfirmed:

All-Star Baseball 2003
All-Star Baseball 2004
Baseball Advance
Blender Bros.
Bomberman Tournament
Castlevania Aria of Sorrow
Castlevania Harmony of Dissonance
Dokapon Monster Hunter
ESPN Great Outdoor Games Bass 2002
F-Zero Maximum Velocity
Gadget Racers
Jurassic Park 3: Park Builder
Konami Crazy Racers
Lego Bionicle
Lego Island 2
Lufia The Ruins Of Lore
MegaMan Battle Network 3 Blue Version
MegaMan Battle Network 3 White Version
MegaMan Zero
Monster Jam Maximum Destruction
Monster Rancher Advance
Monster Rancher Advance 2

Sega Rally Championship
Sports Illustrated For Kids Baseball
Sports Illustrated For Kids Football
Super Dodgeball Advance
Tweety & The Magic Gems
Yu-Gi-Oh! Worldwide Edition

Thanks DxS for letting me know about the PowerPuff Girls Bad Mojo. Do you know what batteries they used? If anyone else notices anything like this please let me know. Thanks for the list of GBA games as well, although do you know what batteries they use?

PPG and all of the GBA games on the list would use CR1616s.

Almost forgot, Pokemon Ruby, Sapphire and Emerald use CR1616 batteries as well. They use batteries for the Real Time Clocks, not to retain save data. There may be other GBA games that have RTCs, but none that I've ever heard of.

Hello,

First of all, I don't want to make it look like I joined just to nit-pick...
Thank you so much for this list! I was looking for a battery list and here it is!

I'm pretty sure Donkey Kong Land 1 2 and 3 are GB not GBC.
They were Super Game Boy compatible but not GBC black or clear carts.
Perhaps there was some confusions because they are yellow and not grey?
Gamefaqs lists all 3 as GB not GBC.

The T is missing from Metroid 2. I wouldn't complain about spelling, but Metroid is important!

Also, please abbreviate Japan as JPN and not Jap, the latter is considered offensive in many areas of the world.

The rest of the list looks perfect. I'll let you know if I see anything missing.

Thanks again, this list was very needed.

I could be wrong about some of these, but just in case:

I'm not sure what "Gemd Gemd" is. I am not familiar with that title.

I'm not sure what "Lacrson Heroes" is... could that be "Last Action Hero"???

GO GO Hike should be Go! Go! Hitchhike

Since "Lil Monster" on GBC is already listed I assume "Little Monster" GB should be "Little Master" which was a GB game.

There was also a Little Master 2 which was an updated version of Little Master. So if 1 had battery, 2 probably did as well. That's something to check out.

That's it for now. Sorry if any of this is nitpicking, just trying to help.

Its not nit picky you are helping to make the list better and that's appreciated. I updated everything but the following

- 1) Gemd Gemd- I think it might be a pirate and I will check on this
- 2) Lacrson Heroes- I think it might also be a pirate and I will check on this
- 3) Little Master 2- I will have to see if it has a battery
- 4) There are two versions of Doney Kong Land 3, one released for the GB and one released for the GBC. Numbers one and two are GB only as you said.

If you find anything else to add or correct please don't hesitate to let me know.

Hi, I'm started a GBA collection since few days

I'm curious to know if this games have a battery or flash memory:

Ninja Five-O

Car Battler Joe

Medabots: Metabee

Anyone knows?

Thanks
